FOUNDATION'S ACTIVITIES

Zakat Foundation of India is working in India since 1998 for collection & distribution of Zakat, Sadaqat, & Imdad to the needy persons in accordance with the rules laid down by the Holy Qur'an & Hadith. The activities of Zakat Foundation of India are as follows:

1) HAPPY HOME (INDIA): It has been established in Delhi where helpless/orphan children are carefully brought up (housing, food, clothes, medical care, education, transport, etc.). Most of the children here are from riot affected Gujarat.

The children are living in four flats given by a philanthropist for temporary use. There are 9 staff members besides 3 tutors. The monthly expenditure of Happy Home in cash & kind is Rs One lakh (US$ 2225) approximately. The children are studying in God's Grace School the well known English Medium School in the area. The School does not charge Zakat Foundation of India or Happy Home (India) are as follows the children's fees, books and uniform.

During January 2004 a plot of land measuring 1100 sq. yds. was identified in Okhla area of Delhi by the members of Zakat Foundation of India and in August its transfer has been registered in Zakat Foundation of India's name. Now the efforts are in progress for construction of Happy Home's own building which will accommodate 500 children having exclusive blocks for boys and girls. The budget is estimated at Rs Seventy lakh (US$ 156,000).

We appeal to your generosity. Please donate out of not only Zakat but also your Sadaqat and Imdad amounts. May God bless you and your progeny.

2) Help of widows & other destitute persons: About 85 widows & indigent men & women are given monthly stipend amounting to Rs. 600/- p.m. upto Rs. 3000/- p.m. depending upon their respective requirements and after proper investigation.

3) Employment Programs: About 150 families have been helped to be economically self sufficient/self employed.

4) Marriage of Poor Girls: Zakat Foundation of India helps in marriage of poor girls.

5) Education: Zakat Foundation of India helps students by way of fee deposit, admission & purchase of books.

6) Medical Treatment: Zakat Foundation of India helps the sick persons in their medical treatment and convalescence.

7) Discharge of Debt: Zakat Foundation of India helps the needy for discharge of debt.

8) Mercy Home (India): A charitable dispensary is being run by ZFI in Darya Ganj, Delhi by the name of Mercy Home (India) for poor & needy patients. It is also equipped with X-Ray & E.C.G. machines, etc.

9) Drug Bank: In Mercy Home (India) there is a drug bank where any person can donate the extra medicines to help the poor & sick.

10) Clothes Bank: The functions of clothes bank in Mercy Home include collection of clothes from donors & their distribution to the needy.

11) Gujarat Relief: During Gujarat disturbance ZFI team visited there and provided medical assistance, clothes, hand carts, ice cream trolleys, sewing machines etc. Seriously injured persons were treated in Delhi. Financial help was rendered for the marriage of girls living in camps and for construction of houses for the homeless.

The members of the Foundation have regular meetings with Ulema and other Religious Scholars many of whom have also delivered valuable speeches in the public gatherings of the Foundation. They are uniformly of the view that, like Namaz, we the Indian Muslims should also systematically organise, as per Shariat, the collection and disbursement of Zakat.
